DOCENTE

Matteo Di Rosa

Matteo Di Rosa (M) joined APRE in 2010, after completing a University degree in Natural Science at the University of Naples "Federico II" and a post-graduation master on Fundraising and Communication of Science at the University of Rome "La Sapienza". In APRE Matteo Di Rosa works as project manager and trainer with experience in dissemination and communication management, stakeholder engagement and community development, and over past years he has acquired expertise in the capacity-building field. This experience has been built mainly through various Framework Programme funded projects where Matteo Di Rosa was involved, including FP7-Envimpact, FP7-EcoWeb, FP7-Biotriangle, FP7-Trade-IT, H2020-QUEST.
Matteo Di Rosa is also a trainer on "How to write a successful proposal" and on "How to maximize the impact of the project results" for the APRE’s members. Before joining APRE, Matteo worked as consultant in the area of scientific communication and public outreach providing assistance to research centres, private companies and publishing articles in scientific magazines. Matteo Di Rosa is member of ECSA (The European Citizen Science Association (https://ecsa.citizen-science.net/).
